For the first two years little of the outstanding balances is realisable, but the greater portion of that for 1863 will be recovered.
 (b.) Balance due on account of 1863-64 and 1865, including the usual double assessment imposed by Section 9, Act VIII. (R. C.) of 1862.
 The large balance of 1863 and 1864 collected during 1865 will, I trust, be noticed. The trouble is, in a district where people had begun to get used to pay when they chose, but not otherwise, can scarcely be imagined, but the results are satisfactory.
 (c.) Rupees 383-15-10 were refunded to Zemindars during 1865 on account of excess collections. Rupees 356-12 were drawn from the Zemindary Dawk Fund on account of salaries of District Amsons and Pealdahs, and some other sums were paid under this head.
 The balance in hand at the commencement of 1865 was Rupees 2,825-10-8.
 The balance in hand on the 31st December 1865 is Rupees 1,737-11-7.

LEGISLATIVE.

Simla, the 31st July 1866.

The following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information, by order of His Excellency the Governor General, under the 19th of the Rules for the conduct of Business at Meetings of the Council of the Governor General of India for the purposes of making Laws and Regulations :

A Bill for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting lawful apprehension, and for other purposes.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting lawful apprehension or escaping from legal custody where such persons have been charged with or convicted of offences punishable only under some special or local law : And whereas it is also expedient to provide for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting the lawful apprehension of, or rescuing from, legal custody, other persons charged with or convicted of such offences as aforesaid ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

I. Sections 224 and 225 of the Indian Penal Code shall be construed as if the word 'offence' denoted anything made punishable by the said Code, or by any special or local law as therein defined.

'Offence' in Sections 224 and 225 of Penal Code, to include anything punishable only by a special or local law.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under Section 224 of the Penal Code a person resisting his apprehension for any "offence" with which he is charged, or of which he has been convicted, or escaping from any custody in which he is detained for such "offence," may be imprisoned or fined as therein mentioned. Section 225 contains similar provisions as to resistance or rescue in the case of another. But by Section 40 "offence" is defined to denote "a thing made punishable by this Code." Doubts have accordingly been raised as to whether escape from lawful custody for an offence against some local or special law, but not expressly made punishable by the Code, can, as the law stands, be punished at all. The present Bill proposes to preclude these doubts by making the crime referred to penal, where the offence is made punishable by the Code or only under some special or local law.

LEGISLATIVE.

Simla, the 31st July 1866.

The following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information, by order of His Excellency the Governor General, under the 19th of the Rules for the conduct of Business at Meetings of the Council of the Governor General of India for the purposes of making Laws and Regulations:—

A Bill for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting lawful apprehension, and for other purposes.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting lawful apprehension or escaping from legal custody where such persons have been charged with or convicted of offences punishable only under some special or local law: And whereas it is also expedient to provide for the more effectual punishment of persons resisting the lawful apprehension of, or rescuing from, any person, other persons charged with or convicted of such offences as aforesaid: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

- I. 'Sections 224 and 225 of the Indian Penal Code shall be construed as if the word 'offence' denoted anything made punishable by the said Code, or by any special or local law as therein defined.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under Section 224 of the Penal Code a person resisting his apprehension for any "offence" with which he is charged, or of which he has been convicted, or escaping from any custody in which he is detained for such "offence," may be imprisoned or fined as therein mentioned. Section 225 contains similar provisions as to resistance or rescue in the case of another. But by Section 40 "offence" is defined to denote "a thing made punishable by this Code." Doubts have accordingly been raised as to whether escape from lawful custody for an offence against some local or special law, but not expressly made punishable by the Code, can, as the law stands, be punished at all. The present Bill proposes to preclude these doubts by making the crime referred to penal, where the offence is made punishable by the Code or only under some special or local law.

I.—Every State is responsible for the secure passage through its territory of the Government Mail and Parcel Post.

II.—Where Mails or Parcel Posts are plundered with impunity, in consequence of inefficient arrangements for their security on the high roads traversing a State, that State will be required to increase the guards which accompany the Mails, and to strengthen its Police Stations along the high roads, or the same will be done by the British Government at the expense of the Native State.

III.—Where Mails or Parcel Posts are plundered, the Native State into which the plunderers are traced, and out of which they cannot be traced, will be expected to levy compensation from the District for the value of the plundered Mails or Parcel Posts.

IV.—In estimating such compensation, no exemption whatever is to be made on account of bullion, jewellery, or other articles of great intrinsic value.

The following Notification issued by the Government of India, in the Financial Department, is re-published for general information :—

No. 1004A.

Simla, the 30th July 1893.

Notification.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Rules for the payment of Currency Notes which have been either lost or mutilated :—

Rules regarding the payment of lost or mutilated Government Currency Notes.

1. Notes which have become slightly mutilated will be readily paid to bona fide holders upon a written statement as to the circumstances of mutilation, and upon an Indemnity (in the form annexed, marked No. 1) being signed by a Banker or some known responsible person.

2. Applications will be received for the payment of Notes which have been seriously mutilated or wholly lost or destroyed, provided they can be identified by the number and date; but they will be subject to a strict investigation, and will be paid only on the authority of the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta, or of the Commissioner at Madras or Bombay, at whose Head Circle the Note may be payable.

3. The title of the applicant to the Note is important, and will vest, in the absence of anything to the contrary, in the last holder of the entire Note. If a Note has been divided, and part lost in transmission between two persons, the one who had never possessed the whole Note would not be regarded as the owner, unless he declared that value or credit had been given for the Note to its full amount. Cases may frequently arise when the half of a Note, which has been divided by some dishonest person for the purpose of obtaining value upon each half, may pass into the hands of an innocent holder for value given. His redress would, in that case, be against his correspondent, and only in an exceptional instance would the Currency Department entertain his application for payment.

4. The declarations will be prepared by the Currency Department, free of charge, upon Forms numbered 2 and 3—that of the claimant being always made upon Form No. 2 containing the property clause.

5. The Bond of Indemnity will also be prepared by the Currency Department upon Form numbered 4, free of expense to the applicant, except the Government Stamp. It will not in any case be taken for a less consideration than Rupees 100; and in cases where the amount of notes is above Rupees 50, the Bond will be taken in double the amount.

6. So far as the declaration and security are concerned, all cases will be submitted to precisely the same form, but a difference will be observed in the period at which payment will be made. The most numerous cases will probably be those in which a Note has been divided for safety, and one part is lost. In these and in all cases where a portion of the Note remains, from which it can be identified, a period of two months only from the loss will be required to elapse. In cases of entire Notes, when total destruction can be clearly proved, a period of twelve months must elapse; but when it is stated that a Note has merely been "lost," this period will be extended to five years.

7. Exception is necessary in the case of Notes for Rupees 1,000 and upwards, which may be only stated to be "lost." In such case, after the lapse of a year or two, the amount will be invested in Government Securities in the names of the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency and the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the dividends will be paid over to the loser. At the time of making this investment an agreement must be entered into by the claimant with the Currency Department, upon Form numbered 5. If at the end of twenty years from the date of the loss, the Notes be still outstanding, the Government Securities will then be sold, and the proceeds paid to the loser upon his giving security with two sureties, as in the cases before mentioned.

8. Intimation of the loss, destruction or mutilation of a Note or portion of a Note, must be sent to the Office where the Note is payable, thus,—

If it be a Calcutta Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta.

If a Madras Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Commissioner of Paper Currency, Madras, and the Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Madras.

If a Bombay Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Commissioner of Paper Currency, Bombay, and the Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Bombay.

If an Allahabad Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Paper Currency, Allahabad, and Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta.

If a Lahore Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Paper Currency, Lahore, and Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta.

If a Nagpore Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Paper Currency, Nagpore, and Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta.

If a Calicut Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calicut, Commissioner of Paper Currency, Madras, and Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Madras.

If a Trichinopoly Circle Note, notice should be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Paper Currency, Trichinopoly, Commissioner of Paper Currency, Madras, and Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Madras.

9. The person making the statement respecting a lost or destroyed Note, or portion of Note, will be required to advertise its loss (free of charge) thrice at least, in the Official Gazette of the Presidency or place where or within which the note is payable, and once in the Gazette of India.

10. Throughout these Rules, the expression "lost note" includes a stolen Note, and the expression "destroyed Note" includes a Note lost under such circumstances as render its recovery physically impossible.

The object of the Exhibition is to bring together, for show and competition, cattle and other live stock, agricultural implements and machinery, articles of Indian agricultural and forest produce, and specimens of industrial manufacture and art; and also to afford an opportunity of comparison between the productions of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and the dominions of the Chiefs of Central India and Rajpootana. The Exhibition will be arranged in five Departments:—

I.—“Live Stock.”

II.—“Agricultural and Animal Products.”

III.—“Forest and Mineral Products.”

IV.—“Machinery and Implements.”

V.—“Arts and Manufactures.”

These Departments will be severally sub-divided as shewn in the classified list appended.

The Exhibition will be opened on Monday, the 4th of February, and will be closed on Saturday evening, the 9th idem.

On the last day (9th) there will be an Exhibition of flowers, fruits, and vegetables; and on the afternoon of that day the prizes will also be publicly distributed.

A detailed classified list of each kind of animal and article for which prizes are offered, with the value of the prize to be competed for in each class, will be published at an early date.

The Exhibition will be open to competitors from all parts of India.

Judges will be appointed for each Department, and the prizes will be adjudged on Friday and Saturday, the 1st and 2nd of February.

The Committee will take charge of all live stock, and will provide their food from the date of arrival in the Show-yard until the close of the Exhibition.

The principal object in encouraging the Exhibition of live stock being the improvement of breed consideration will be chiefly given to that point when awarding prizes.

In judging the merits and superiority of machinery and implements, regard will be especially directed to durability, economy, and adaptation to the requirements of the country.

Local and Divisional Committees have been formed, for the purpose of aiding the Central Committee in the collection and selection of live stock and articles for exhibition, and for the arrangement of the despatch of animals, &c., from their several circles to Agra.

The freight of all live stock and articles sent by rail, road, or water to the Exhibition, compensation for breakage, and losses after delivery to Local Committee, Railway tickets for poor contributors or their servants in charge, and road expenses for live stock will be advanced by the Local or Divisional Committee of the circle in which the exhibitor resides, and carefully prepared accounts of all such expenditure must be kept by them. The Central Committee will be responsible for, and will compensate exhibitors on account of, loss or damage to live stock and goods which may ensue after the property has been received in the Exhibition yard.

Curators will be appointed to take charge of live stock and articles which shall, by the approval of the Committee, be admitted into the Show-yard for exhibition.

The Lieutenant-Governor looks to all Officers of Government in these Provinces for their hearty support and co-operation, and His Honor enjoins on all Officers in charge of Districts and Local and Divisional Committees careful attention to, and prompt and full compliance with, the wishes and requisitions of the Central Committee.
